

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 27, 2009

CONTACT: Melissa
O-202.226.8482 C-202
Greg Keeley

MEDIA ADVISORY

Senate and House Western Caucuses to Hold Bicameral Hearing on Cap & Trade

Washington, DC—This Thursday, July 30, 2009 House and Senate Western Caucus members will hold a historic bicameral hearing on cap and trade. With President Obama's original deadline just days away, and as the Senate continues to become further entangled in the complex web of cap and trade's costly regulations and mandates, this hearing will feature experts and key stakeholders who will examine the specific economic impact cap and trade policies are likely to have on the West and the nation.

WHO: House and Senate Western Caucus members, policy experts and stakeholders
WHAT: Bicameral hearing on Cap & Trade: Impact on Jobs in the West & the Nation
WHERE: Dirksen Senate Office Building, Room 406
DATE: Thursday, July 30, 2009
TIME: 1:00 p.m.- 3:00 p.m. EDT

Confirmed Witnesses

Dick Armey

Chairman, FreedomWorks

Harry Alford

President and CEO of the National Black Chamber of Commerce

Bill Kovacs

Senior Vice President of the Environment, Technology & Regulatory Division at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce

Kimball Rasmussen

CEO, Deseret Power

Jim Magagna

Executive Vice President, Wyoming Stock Growers Association

Phil Kerpen

Director of Policy, Americans for Prosperity